

Preface

by René FRYDMAN

Medically assisted reproduction with a third party donor: rethinking anonymity in France. An Insider's view,
Jean-Marie KUNSTMANN

Assisted reproduction in France: From absolute anonymity to possible traceability,
Brigitte FEUILLET

Donor anonymity in art: a psychoanalytical view. Anonymity denies the psychological truth of donation,
Geneviève DELAISI DE PARSEVAL

Questioning anonymity,
Dominique MEHL

From secret origins to anonymous procreators,
Claude SUREAU

The identification of gamete donors in the Federal Republic of Germany: a controversial issue with disturbing consequences,
Françoise FURKEL

Anonymity and Art in Belgian Law: Practicalities of the Law of 6th July 2007,
Geneviève SCHAMPS, Marie-Noelle DERESE

Art and anonymity: Brazilian law and new forms of parenthood,
Maria Claudia CRESPO BRAUNER

Anonymity and Art in Spain: a controversial legal principle,
Verónica SAN JULIAN

From total to partial anonymity: the (r)evolution of English law on Art,
Thérèse CALLUS

Art and anonymity under Greek law,
Penelope AGALLOPOULOU

Anonymity in assisted reproduction: gender equality and a pronatal reproductive policy in Hungarian law,
Judit SANDOR

Anonymity and assisted reproduction in Italy: A marginal issue,
Stéphane BAUZON

Anonymity and assisted reproduction in Japan: Dialectic of anonymity and well-being of the child,
Ryuichi IDA

Gamete donor anonymity under Dutch law,
J.G.SIJMONS

“Donor anonymity” in Portugal,
Guilherme DE OLIVEIRA and Rafael REIS

“Art and the removal of anonymity in Sweden: between transparency and a new status for the child”,
Kristina ORFALI

Assisted reproduction under Swiss law: the truth about the conception and the identity of the gamete donor,
Dominique MANAI

Tunisian legislation on assisted reproduction technologies rooted in religion: the prohibition on donation,
Amel AOUIJ-MRAD

Assisted reproduction and anonymous donation in the US: A market-driven approach,
Kristina ORFALI

Assisted reproduction and anonymity: Looking beyond the differences,
Brigitte FEUILLET-LIGER